

Project Size: 64,000 sq ft
Completion Date: 2007

The Suamico Ale House, Banquet Center and ProBowl, located just north of Green Bay, opened in March 2007. This new facility features the Suamico Ale House Sports Bar and Restaurant, the Suamico Banquet Center, ProBowl Bowling Center and ProShop.

The Suamico Ale House features a spacious restaurant area with seating for up to 300. The large kitchen and hostess area offers a full menu. The bar area features a large bar with numerous televisions and large projection screens for watching sporting events. Included in the bar is a billiards area with a bowling machine and gaming. The bar area includes three sky boxes available for small meetings or private parties and can be combined for large gatherings. To the outside of the bar is a glass-surrounded patio for outdoor dining during the summer months.

The ProBowl features 48 lanes of bowling with cyber glow bowling, proshop, arcade, six private party rooms and a full service bar. This facility hosts State bowling tournaments, league bowling and many other special events.

The Suamico Banquet Center offers seating for up to 500 guests and can accommodate weddings, business meetings, holiday parties and more. This area features state-of-the-art lighting, sound system with remote microphone, pull down screens and projectors. The facility includes a dance floor, stage and portable bars.
